

THE BULLETIN.

OFFICE—Second Street, Opposite
Cadwallader's Photograph Gallery.

MAYSVILLE, THURSDAY, AUG. 21

Those who receive a copy of the Dollar Weekly Bulletin, and wishing to subscribe will receive it regularly by remitting ONE DOLLAR.

Our terms invariably in advance.

We are informed that recruiting is going forward very satisfactorily, over eight hundred men have already entered Camp in East Maysville.

Madison House.
This well known Hotel, situated on Main, between Front and Columbia Streets, Cincinnati, is still growing in popular favor. Its enterprising proprietor, J. W. GARRISON, spares neither pains nor expense to accommodate his transient and permanent guests. Persons visiting the Queen City, are apprized that a sojourn at the Madison House, will be as pleasant as any other Hotel in the City.

ACCOMMODATION LINE.—The Boston No. 2, Capt. E. S. MORGAN, now running in the trade between this place and Cincinnati. Passengers and shippers will find it to their advantage to remember the Boston, as she will remain in the trade as long as there is sufficient water for navigation. Clerks, Frank Coffin and Marsh Clark, will attend in the office.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.—This inimitable work, edited by Mrs. S. J. HALE and G. A. GODEY, for September has come to hand, filled with interesting articles, some of which are not to be surpassed for chasteness, and high moral tone. It is impossible for us in a brief notice, to speak of its merits in a manner that would be at all equal to its intrinsic value, but merely say to those who may wish to examine its real worth that the Book alone will speak for itself—and by paying $3 they can get it. We think they will not regret having appropriated this small sum to educational purposes, but their regret will be, that they had not sooner commenced reading so valuable a book, as it has proven to be to the culture of the female mind. Address L. A. GODEY, 323 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

PORTSMOUTH, MAYSVILLE AND CINCINNATI PACKET.—For the convenience of the Business community, during the low water season, the Forest Rose will run regularly, in place of the Boston, in the above trade.—She is under the command of Commodore McClain, with that prince of clever fellows and quiet and accommodating gentleman, MACI PARKER, in the Office. In fact all of her Officers are polite, attentive and prompt in the discharge of their duties, and will do all in their power to insure the comfort and safety of passengers. The Forest Rose deserves the patronage of an appreciative public.

The steamer Jesse K. Bell took down to Memphis on Sunday five hundred convalescent soldiers.

A collision occurred on the Potomac Thursday night, between the steamers West Point and Peabody. The West Point sunk in ten minutes, carrying down with her 73 convalescent soldiers belonging to Burnside's army.

Cassius M. Clay is to be assigned to a very important command west of the Mississippi.

Star-gazers are informed that there is visible in the northern heavens, every clear evening, about nine o'clock, a large comet with a "tremendous" tail. It is not so conspicuous as the last one.

At the last accounts the 16th Kentucky regiment was at Bowling Green, Ky.

It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns, that Miss McMahon will open a School in the building (formerly occupied for that purpose by the Rev. F. B. Nash), next door to M. A. Hutchins' dwelling, on Third street. She is a young lady of superior attainments, being mistress of the English and French Languages, and has received her diploma from the highest Academy in Ohio, (the Sisters of Notre Dame, Cincinnati), and was examined by Archbishop Purcell, at the close of each Session. She will introduce an entirely new branch of learning for Young Ladies, that of Sewing and Embroidery, which will be included in their studies without extra charge. Wherever this is taught an extra charge of from Ten to Fifteen dollars per Session is made. Children of all denominations are invited; the children of Catholic Parents, will receive a strictly religious Education; those who do not wish a religious training, will receive a thorough English Education. She will teach Music to those who desire to take lessons, for less than the usual terms. Her abilities as a Performer on the Piano, Melodeon and Organ, are testified to by the best Musicians of Cincinnati. Terms will be very low. Miss McMahon can be seen at M. A. Hutchins' Corner of Third and Limestone Streets.

Maj. Montgomery drove Coffee's band of guerrillas out of Humansville, Mo., Monday night, 11th inst., caught and attacked them Tuesday morning at Stockton, killing and wounding quite a number of them, and putting the balance to flight.

The weather continues cool and pleasant, with some indications of rain. The river is very low, only the smallest class of boats being able to navigate, and they find great difficulty in getting along. Commerce has almost entirely ceased and is certainly confined to the local trade.

On last Friday afternoon, the Steam Flour Mill, in East Maysville, owned by Roberts & Gambrell, caught on fire but the flames were fortunately extinguished before doing any serious damage.

Coroner SCUDDER was called upon last Monday morning, to hold an inquest on the body of a man found in the Ohio river, near the Coal Oil Works. It proved to be that of JOHN FOX, who was drowned last February. His wife identified his shoes, which were the only marks by which he could be recognized. The jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts.

Mr. R. MEES gives notice, in to-day's paper, that he will commence a Music Class in September next. Those wishing to make advancement in this delightful Science, have now an excellent opportunity. We have heard Mr. MEES perform, and know that he is a good Musician.

The Memphis Bulletin, of the 15th, learns that Mr. Isham, the Memphis correspondent of the Chicago Times, was arrested last night by order of Gen. Grant, for publications "false in fact and pernicious in tendency." He will be sent to the penitentiary at Alton, for safe confinement, till the war is over, unless sooner released.

The river at this point is fast approaching low-water mark, and continues to recede slowly.

Col. W. Seawell, U. S. A., has been appointed mustering officer and general superintendent of the recruiting service in Kentucky headquarters at Louisville.

Capt. Carey, of Morgan's Legion, and six or seven privates of his company, who were severely wounded in the fight at Cynthiana, a few weeks ago, have been sent to Camp Chase, Ohio.

George P. Webster, of Campbell county, has resigned his seat in the Legislature, to accept the office of Assistant Quartermaster General, and an election to fill the vacancy will be held on the 23d inst.

We return our thanks to Mr. Geo. A. Orr, of the "Union Coal and Oil Company," for late Nashville papers.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—We regret to learn that our esteemed friend ERASMUS PICKETT, had his leg broken last Friday. He was driving a Threshing Machine, and unfortunately stepped upon some of the machinery, which caused the accident. The fractured limb was dressed by Dr. ADAMS, and Mr. PICKETT is now doing well.

A very interesting condition of affairs according to the Georgetown Argus, exists in old Brown county, Ohio. It seems that all who condemn the measures of an Abolition Congress, and who are not in favor of emancipating the slaves of the South by confiscation, are regarded as secessionists, and certain persons have determined that such secessionists shall not live in Ohio. Accordingly certain bullies blackguards have been ranging around the county assailing Democrats and other conservative men, scaring women, and playing the mischief quite generally. The editor of the Argus came in for his share of the abuse, and a visit was made to the home of the Congressman, White, who was at the time engaged in recruiting for John G. Marshall's regiment. It is expected in this way to scare good men from voting in the fall election, and elect a radical in White's place. For one, we say, hurrah for White. He is as good a Union man as lives in the State of Ohio, and it is because of his devotion to the Union, as cemented by the Constitution, that these ultraists denounce him. We hope that his friends will maintain their rights and send him back to Congress.—Maysville Eagle.

RENDS IN ILLINOIS.—We learn from the Charleston (Ill.) Courier that when the news of the guerrilla Morgan's recent exploits reached that place, a gang of torrid ruffians through the streets with impunity, cheering for Morgan, Jeff Davis and the Southern Confederacy. We are informed that a similar scene was enacted in Vandalia. We have received a letter from Union County, stating that the secessionists there have become highly rampant and talk of driving Union men out of the county; also that a Rebel flag was hoisted in one of the towns there recently, and kept flying all day.

A NOTE FROM SAM. HOUSTON, JR.—It appears that a son of Gen. Sam. Houston is a prisoner at Camp Douglas, near Chicago. We find the following note from him in the Chicago Times:
I have heard that a man calling himself the Rev. Charles Clark, and claiming to be a son of ex-Gov. Clark of Texas, and son-in-law of Gen. Sam. Houston, lately made certain statements concerning the alleged death of his father-in-law, at a public meeting held in Boston. Now this reverend gentleman is certainly an impostor of the blackest dye, as Gov. Clark's eldest child is but a boy 12 years of age, and my eldest sister is but a little girl at school. I left home last March, and my father, Gen. Houston, was then in better health than he had been for years.

The Cincinnati Gazette's Washington correspondent says President Lincoln is "disgusted" with Gov. Wickliffe, on account of his speech at Indianapolis. We presume Gov. Wickliffe will feel very bad about it. The people of the whole country are fast becoming "disgusted" with Mr. Lincoln. He'll "see it" before a great while.—Logan (O.) Gazette.

DOCTORS DISAGREE.—The Constitution and Laws must be strictly enforced.—Lincoln. Any person claiming a strict construction of the Constitution, is an aider and abettor of rebellion.—Ben. Wade.

DIED.
Died on the 6th inst. at the residence of Wm. Dobyns, Clarksville, Indiana, B. C. LAUREL, of Maysville, Ky., in the 53d year of his age.
In this dispensation of Providence, this community has lost a valued and highly esteemed citizen, his family an affectionate husband and kind father, and the Christian Church a devoted, consistent and efficient member and officer. He was faithful in his attendance on the ministrations of the word and ordinances of God's house, and took a deep interest in the advancement of the cause of his blessed Master, and was ever ready with his counsel, his influence and his purse to build up Zion. Having finished his work in the militant church here on earth, of which he was an exemplary member for more than thirteen years, he has gone, as we believe and hope, to find his place in the church triumphant above.
"Life's duty done as sinks the clay,
Light from its load the spirit flies
While heaven and earth combine to say,
How blest the righteous when he dies."
R. MEES.
